EVENT and COMMENT

President Grant has apologized to the delegation from the S. Carolinia tax-payers convention, for the irritation he manifested in replying to them at the White House, His irritation shows him sensative to adverse and uncharitable criticism and his apology exhibits him in an attitude which commands the respect of all Americans.

The President will not veto the new Currency bill, which makes money plentier, and consequently cheaper. As money becomes plentier it, like everything else similarly affected, becomes cheaper, and then everything else becomes higher. The moneyless class can then get it easier and just as gold goes up, those who owe debts will find their indebtedness decreas-

THE ORDER OF ENOCH BRIGHAM YOUNG'S GREAT CONFIDENCE SWINDLE.

The Prophet Spoiling his People -The Order Established in the Country Districts Only-No Attempt Yet Made in Salt Lake.

SALT LAKE CHY, March 30 .- Some nention has been made of the new Order of Enoch which Brigham Young is endeavoring to introduce among his saints. The subject, however, has not received that attention in the East Which it merits, foretelling, as it does, to the minds of all intelligent persons in this territory, the downfall of Mormonism. The attempt to establish the order is, indeed, the first confession of weakness which Brigham Young has made for many no man else can see and hear, and most surely fall.
